

The details have already been concluded and we are waiting for confirmation from the Minister. We still haven't received his final answer. Considering that for quality organization we need time, the start of the Educational Rendezvous 2010 has been postponed for September.

In June, at the annual MASSUM congress, the details regarding the organization will be discussed with the mentors and all additional activities will be arranged.